

BANNER JONES SOLICITORS

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS:

Conditions means the terms and conditions set out in this leaflet, those in any supplementary department leaflet and any referred to in the accompanying letter of engagement. The Conditions apply and form the basis of the Contract between you and us under which we will be acting for you on this and any future work that we do for you and supersede any previously issued conditions. No variation of the Conditions or to a quotation from us will be binding unless expressly agreed in writing by us. Where we are instructed by more than one person each one of those instructing us is jointly and severally liable for these conditions.

1. Service Standards

We will endeavour to adhere to various service standards during the time we act on your behalf. In particular we will:

- 1 Keep you regularly informed of the progress of your matter.
- 2 Communicate in plain language.
- 3 Explain the legal work that may be required.
- 4 Advise you of the likely timescale involved.
- 5 Give you the best information possible about our likely costs including whether there are alternative methods by which your matter can be funded.
- 6 Advise you if relevant, on a regular basis of the cost/risk benefit of pursuing the matter.
- 7 Always act in your best interests.
- 8 Give you our best advice.

2. What you need to do

To ensure that we have the best possible relationship with you and your case progresses in the best possible way, you should:

- 1 Give us instructions that allow us to do our work properly.
- 2 Not ask us to work in an improper or unreasonable way.
- 3 Not deliberately mislead us.
- 4 Co-operate with us or any expert or third party we ask you to see.

3. Hours of Business

We are normally open between 9am and 5pm, Monday to Friday (except Bank Holidays). Telephone messages can be left outside these hours and appointments can be made at other times when it is essential.

4. Communication between You and Us

Many enquiries can be dealt with by telephone but we may need to meet with you. It is possible that one of our team will be available to see you if you call in to the office, but, to avoid disappointment or waiting, we recommend you arrange an appointment. When telephoning, please either use any direct number shown in the accompanying letter of engagement or the main office telephone number. Alternatively, we are more than happy to hear from you by e-mail on the address in the accompanying letter of engagement. Please note we cannot guarantee that this is a secure means of communication. If you have a preferred means of communication, or there is a better time of day to contact you, then please let us know. If your telephone number, postal address or e-mail address changes or becomes unavailable please advise us immediately. We cannot be held responsible for sending correspondence to a previous postal or e-mail address, or using a previously disclosed telephone number, if you have not updated us.

5. Value Added Tax (VAT)

Our VAT number is 345980525. We are required to add VAT to our charges at the rate in force at the time to fixed prices, estimates and bills. VAT may also be added to some disbursements (payments to others and out-of-pocket expenses).

6. Professional Regulation

We are authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA Number 493083) under the SRA Standards and Regulations 2019. You can obtain more information by contacting the SRA, The Cube, 199 Wharfside Street, Birmingham, B1 1RN. 0870 6062555. www.sra.org.uk

7. Professional Indemnity Insurance

In accordance with the disclosure requirements of the Provision of Services Regulations 2009 our professional insurance cover is with QBE UK Limited, 30 Fenchurch Street, London, EC3M 3BD. Territorial cover is worldwide.

8. Financial Conduct Authority

We are subject to regulation by the FCA in various regards not least the handling of investment business and advising on insurance under provisions relating to Insurance Mediation. We are therefore included on the FCA's register and the FCA compliance officer is Robert Goodwin. The register can be accessed via the Financial Conduct Authority website at www.fca.org.uk/firms/financial-services-register.

If mediation activities are relevant in your matter we will forward to you a separate letter and further information at that stage.

If you are or will be in a position of having money to invest, we can put you in touch with an Independent Financial Adviser upon request. We will then forward to you a separate letter and further information at that stage.

9. Identity, Disclosure and Confidentiality

The Law now requires solicitors to obtain satisfactory evidence of the identity of their client and sometimes people related to them or connected to them, this is because solicitors who deal with money and property on behalf of their client can be used by criminals wishing to launder money. Such evidence must be both as to who you are and your address. It applies to all clients and each matter we do work for you on.

We are required to retain such evidence for at least 5 years and produce it on request to the Police.

Please therefore provide us with two forms of ID, in accordance with the attached Proof of Identification Guidance Notes.

If you are unable to attend at our offices or produce copies of your ID certified by a professional. We may be able to perform an online identity check against your name. In order to carry this out we may need you to provide information from your ID such as your passport number or driving licence number and send copies to us. We may also need you to send us the originals for comparison. The fee for carrying out this check is £10 per name plus VAT.

Solicitors are under a professional and legal obligation to keep the affairs of the client confidential. However, solicitors may be required by statute to make disclosure to the National Crime Agency (NCA) any circumstances which cause us to suspect, or which are considered that we ought to suspect, that you or anyone else involved in the matter we are dealing with may be involved in money laundering or terrorist financing. This means not just fraud but dealing with the proceeds of any criminal activity, wherever committed, including theft, terrorism, drug trafficking and failure to pay tax or duty. The benefit can be of any amount. Failure by us to comply with the Act is itself a criminal act. If we have to make a report, the Act requires us to undertake no further work until authorised by the NCA. It also prevents us from telling you that a report has been made or giving you an explanation as to why we have stopped work.

Our duties under the Act take precedence over all our professional and contractual obligations to you. So, by instructing us you accept that we will not be liable for any loss you may suffer because we have made a report under the Act and, or, have ceased work whilst we await authority to proceed.

Where we are also acting for a proposed lender in your matter, we have a duty to fully reveal to your lender all relevant facts. This includes: any differences between a mortgage application and information we receive during the transaction, any cash back payments or discount schemes that are given to you.

10. Data Protection

See our website for the current policy. <https://www.bannerjones.co.uk/pages/privacy-policy>

11. Outsourcing of Work

Sometimes we ask other companies or people to do typing/photocopying/other work on our files to ensure this is done promptly. We will always seek a confidentiality agreement with these outsourced providers. If you do not want your file to be outsourced, please notify us in writing.

12. Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI)

We utilise AI technologies in certain aspects of our business processes. While AI assists in enhancing efficiency and accuracy, all critical decisions are supervised by our human professionals to ensure quality and compliance. By engaging with our services, you acknowledge and accept the use of AI in our operations. Our AI systems are a secure, private deployment and do not expose your information into the public domain, in compliance with UK GDPR, current legislation and SRA Principles. If you do not consent to the use of AI, please notify us in writing.

If you choose to use AI tools in connection with your matter, you must exercise caution and remain responsible for verifying the accuracy of any AI-generated content before submission to the Firm. You should inform us of any AI tools used in preparing documents or instructions. The Firm reserves the right to reject or amend AI-generated material that does not meet professional standards.

You warrant that any AI-generated content provided does not infringe third-party intellectual property rights. We accept no liability for any IP claims arising from your use of AI tools. AI tools must not be used for unlawful, discriminatory, or misleading purposes.

You must not input Firm, Court, Tribunal, or third-party documents or confidential information into public or unsecured AI systems. Doing so may risk contempt of court and breach confidentiality obligations. We accept no responsibility for breaches of confidentiality or data protection arising from client use of third-party AI tools, which are beyond our control. We cannot warrant or control what third parties, including litigation opponents, do with documents we supply on your behalf. Once documents are disclosed or served in accordance with legal obligations, their subsequent handling by third parties is outside our responsibility.

13. Vetting of files and confidentiality

External firms or organisations may conduct audit or quality checks on our practice from time to time. They may wish to audit/quality check your file and related papers for this purpose. It is a specific requirement imposed by us that these external firms or organisations fully maintain confidentiality in relation to any files and papers which are audited/quality checked by them. Your files may also be reviewed in a due diligence exercise relating to the sale or transfer of all or part of our business, the acquisition of another business by us or the acquisition of new business. If you do not wish your file to be used in this way, please let us know as soon as possible. In the event we use elect to use Cloud storage this can pose particular difficulties in relation to confidentiality. We will have undertaken a thorough risk assessment. You should advise us immediately if you do not want your files and/or other information to be stored in this way.

14. Avoiding Scams

As we hold client money we are a target for scammers. You are responsible for the security of your own data and bank account details and should make yourself aware of the dangers of social engineering scams and IT manipulation to steal data. We will provide our client account banking details to you in a secure manner. It is unlikely that we will change our bank account details during the course of the transaction. In any event, please be aware that we do not notify changes to important business information, such as bank account details, by e-mail.

15. Equality and Diversity

We are committed to promoting equality and diversity in all our dealings with clients, third parties and employees. Please contact us if you wish to see a copy of our equality and diversity policy or view on our website www.bannerjones.co.uk.

16. Charges and Expenses

Unless we have agreed a fixed fee for your matter our charges will be calculated by reference to the time spent dealing with your matter. This includes meetings with you and others, preparation and research, travelling and attending Court if applicable, letters and emails out and telephone calls. We set out below the hourly charging rates for the firm's categories of staff:

	Grade	Rate £	Inc VAT
Private Charging Rates
Directors Solicitors and Legal Executives with over 8 years PQE (post qualification experience)	A	£325.00	£390.00
Solicitors and Legal Executives with over 4 years PQE	B	£280.00	£336.00
Other Solicitors, Legal Executives and Paralegals of equivalent experience	C	£230.00	£276.00
Trainee Solicitors and Paralegals of equivalent experience	D	£165.00	£198.00

These rates are reviewable and you will be advised of any increases. Routine letters sent, e-mails sent and telephone calls are each charged at one-tenth of the hourly rate. In exceptional cases the court will allow an increase in the hourly rate. VAT and any disbursements will also be payable.

17. Billing

To enable you to budget we may send Statute interim invoices at regular intervals for work carried out during the conduct of your matter. These invoices are final invoices for the period billed. In the event of payment of our invoice not being made promptly or not being paid in accordance with our payment terms we reserve the right to suspend work on your file and on any other matters being dealt with for you and, ultimately, to decline to act any further and the full amount of the work done on all matters up to that date will be charged to you.

All Accounts are to be settled immediately. If they are not settled within one calendar month of the date of the invoice interest will be charged on the whole or outstanding part of an unpaid invoice with effect one month after delivery of the bill. Interest will be charged at the rate payable on judgement debts (currently 8 per cent per annum) or, where a client is a business, the rate allowed under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.

Where we are holding money due to you, e.g. on completion of the sale of a property or where we have recovered monies from a third party on your behalf, fees and disbursements due to us and any VAT (where applicable) will be deducted and the balance paid by you.

Our invoices are delivered in accordance with section 69 to 72 inclusive of the Solicitors Act 1974. This permits us to deliver invoices electronically where we have your permission to do so. We shall treat acceptance of these Conditions as you having given your permission.

You are entitled to complain about your bill. There may also be a right to object to the bill by making a complaint to the Legal Ombudsman (see Condition 18) and/or by applying to the court for an assessment of the bill under Part III of the Solicitors Act 1974.

If it becomes necessary to send reminder letters to enforce outstanding accounts you will be charged, at our discretion, the sum of £21.00 plus VAT for each reminder letter sent. In addition if we incur any out of pocket expenses in enforcing outstanding accounts these will also be charged to you.

In some matters a client may be entitled to payment of costs by some other person. It is important to be aware that we are employed by you and that you are personally responsible for the payment of our fees regardless of this. In such cases the other person may not be required to pay all the charges and expenses which you incur with us. You have to pay our charges and expenses in the first place and any amounts which can be recovered will be a contribution towards them. If the other party is in receipt of legal aid no costs are likely to be recovered. The other party will not be liable to pay the VAT element of your costs if you are able to recover the VAT yourself.

If you have to make a contribution to another party's costs you will need to pay these in addition to your own.

18. Limited Companies

When accepting instructions to act on behalf of a limited company, we may require a Director and/or controlling shareholder to sign a form of personal guarantee in respect of the charges and expenses of this Company. If such a request is refused, we will be entitled to stop acting and to the full amount of the work done on all matters up to that date will be charged to you.

19. Payments

Payments you are making to us may be made by Bank Transfer, debit/credit card subject to not exceeding a £1,000.00 limit, cheque or cash. Cheques should be made payable to Banner Jones Solicitors. You should allow seven working days for any cheques deposited with us to clear to enable us to make payments out. American Express is not accepted. Please note we are unable to accept payments for deposits or balance purchase monies on property transactions by credit card.

Please also note that given the strict rules of money laundering, it is now the policy of this company to only accept cash not exceeding £500.00 in any 28 day period. If you try to avoid this policy by depositing cash directly with our bank, we may decide to charge you for any additional checks we decide are necessary to prove the source of the funds.

Where we are instructed by more than one person, each one of those instructing us is jointly and severally liable for our fees and any other expenditure we incur on your behalf.

Where we have to pay money to you, it will be paid by cheque or bank transfer. It will not be paid in cash or to a third party. In the case of cheques being paid out where there is more than one party, we are only able to make payment to one of you if we have written authority from the other person to do so.

The following charges are payable where funds are transmitted to you electronically via

Same Day Payment	£30 + VAT
3 Day Payment	Free

Electronic payment methods are subject to bank limits in place at the time

20. Monies held in Client Account

Any money you pay to us (except money to cover our invoices and disbursements) will be paid into our Client Account with National Westminster Bank PLC or Lloyds Bank PLC. This money will continue to belong to you. In the event of a bank suffering financial difficulties client funds could be lost. Funds held in our client account are protected under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS), subject to eligibility criteria. The FSCS provides compensation up to its current limit for qualifying deposits. You can find full details of the scheme, including the current compensation limit, at: <https://www.fscs.org.uk> Alternatively, you may ask us for further information.

Any monies you place with us which will result in your total monies with National Westminster Bank plc or Lloyds Bank PLC (or any other institution which uses the same FCA authorisation) exceeding the FCA compensation limit are placed at your own risk. You should note that if you hold other money in the same banks, this will also be counted towards the total.

We have notified our bank that our Client Account is made of placement of monies from various Clients which should qualify you to make the compensation claim. Further information is available from the FCA.

When we hold money in our Client Account for you, or for a person funding all or part of your fees, or for a trust, we will account to you or that person or trust for interest when it is fair and reasonable to do so in all the circumstances. This will not apply:

- when the amount held is less than £1000 and money is held for less than 8 weeks
 - when the amount of interest when calculated amounts to less than £50;
 - when the money held is for the payment of a disbursement;
 - when the money held is for the Legal Services Commission;
 - to advances made to a Trust so it may make payments out when not in funds, and
 - when you have agreed with us that this term and condition shall not apply to your matter.
- | | | | |
|---------|---------|---------|---------|
| £1000 | £2000 | £10,000 | £20,000 |
| 8 weeks | 4 weeks | 2 weeks | 1 week |

Where it is more appropriate to you or your matter that your money is held in an instant access facility then you should note that you are unlikely to receive as much interest as if you had held the money yourself.

Please note that if the monies are due to be received from a source other than yourself, or have been received from you at a critical stage in your matter it may not be possible to pay any monies out to you if, for example, we have given a solicitor's undertaking not to release monies pending certain events (i.e. repayment of your borrowing).

21. Acceptance

If you would like us to commence work on your file, please sign these terms and conditions, tick the box marked 'Please commence work immediately' and return it to us. You can write to us at 24 Glumangate, Chesterfield, Derbyshire, S40 1UA. You can also e-mail us at info@bannerjones.co.uk.

22. Termination

We may decide to stop acting for you only with good reason and we must give you reasonable notice of this.

You may end your instructions to us in writing at any time, but we can keep all your papers and documents if we have a right to a lien (see Condition 23). You can write to us at 24 Glumangate, Chesterfield, Derbyshire, S40 1UA. You can also e-mail us at info@bannerjones.co.uk.

If you (subject to the following relating to Consumer Contracts and Distance Selling) or we decide that we should stop acting for you, you will pay our charges up until that point. Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 (as amended, replaced, or re-enacted from time to time). If you are a consumer, you have the right to cancel your instructions within 14 days of the date we enter into a contract with you. You may cancel by writing to us, emailing us, or otherwise clearly telling us that you wish to cancel. If you ask us to start work during the 14-day cancellation period and then cancel, you will be responsible for paying our fees and any expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation. If you have asked us to begin work immediately and we complete all of the work before the end of the 14-day cancellation period, your right to cancel will end when the work is completed. If you cancel, we will return any original documents belonging to you, subject to any legal right we may have to retain them until outstanding fees and expenses have been paid. You must promptly return any original documents belonging to us or third parties that are in your possession. This right to cancel applies only where you instruct us as a consumer and not in the course of a business, trade, or profession.

Where legal aid services are provided free of charge to you and no payment is made by you to us, The CCR 2013 will not apply. This is because there is no 'service contract' as defined under The CCR 2013.

In legal aid cases where you are required to make a payment towards the service you receive, payment is not made by you to us, but rather to the Lord Chancellor in accordance with statutory obligations under the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (section 23 - Payment for Services). For this reason legal aid cases involving payment by the client would also fall outside the remit of The CCR 2013.

23. Our rights to a Lien

The common law entitles us to retain any money, papers or other property belonging to you which, properly come into our possession pending payment of our costs, whether or not the property is acquired in connection with the matter for which the costs were incurred. This is known as a general lien. We are not entitled to sell property held under a lien but we are entitled to hold property, other than money, even if the value of it greatly exceeds the amount due to us in respect of costs.

If we are conducting litigation for you, we have additional rights. In any property recovered or preserved for you, whether it is in our possession or not, and in respect of all costs incurred whether billed or unbilled. We also have a right to ask the Court to make a Charging Order in our favour for any assessed costs.

24. Storage of Papers and Documents

We will retain an electronic copy of your file and destroy any paper copy. The electronic copy will be retained for 6 years and then destroyed unless specified differently below:

- Residential Property: Sale files retained for 6 years and 15 years for purchase files
- Wills/Codicils/Power of Attorney: Files retained for 6 years after the testator/donor has died and the estate has been wound up.
- Trusts: Files retained for 6 years after the last action in the trust has been taken and/or 6 years from when any minor reaches the age of 18.
- Civil Litigation: Files retained for 6 years and/or longer if a minor or a person with a disability is involved, which would be advised on closure..
- Commercial: Commercial property and commercial transaction files retained for 15 years.
- Family/Care: Financial and maintenance matters retained for 6 years, however, where the matter involves a minor, consideration may be given to extending the limitation period until they have reached the age of 18, which would be advised on closure.

We will not destroy originals of documents that you ask us to deposit in our store for safe keeping. We require a reasonable period of time in which to create the electronic copy. You can ask for a copy of your file as long as all outstanding accounts have been paid. We are entitled to retain our own notes, copies of any letters we have sent and any letters you sent to us. In proceedings relating to children, it may sometimes be necessary to obtain the court's permission before we can release the papers to you. We can either:

- send your file or stored documents to you or another at your written request in an electronic format (please note we cannot guarantee security);
- make a paper copy of your file or the originals of or a copy of your stored documents available for collection at an office of your choice allowing a reasonable period of time to convey the file to that office. You will need to provide ID at the point of collection or a letter of authority if someone else is to collect on your behalf. Joint clients who are not collecting together will need to provide the written authority of the other, or
- post you a paper copy of your file or the originals of or a copy of your stored documents by second class post (please note we cannot guarantee security or delivery times).

We may make a charge for the above based on time spent at the paralegal hourly rate (referred to in Condition 14). If we retrieve papers or documents from storage in relation to continuing or new instructions to act for you, we will not normally charge for retrieval. We may also charge for reading, correspondence or other work necessary to comply with our instructions.

25. Complaints

Our Complaints Procedure

We are committed to high quality legal advice and service. If you have a complaint about any aspect of the service we provide to you or your bill then please inform us immediately so that we can do our best to resolve the problem for you.

You can obtain full details of our complaints procedure here <https://www.bannerjones.co.uk/pages/complaints> or we will e-mail or post you a copy on request.

We suggest you first contact the person who is representing you to see whether they can resolve the problem.

If you have tried to do this, and are not satisfied with the response, or you do not wish to contact the person dealing with your case, please contact Client Services:

In writing: Jayne Henshaw, Client Services Director, Banner Jones Solicitors, 24 Glumangate, Chesterfield, S40 1UA.

E-mail: JayneHenshaw@bannerjones.co.uk

Telephone: 01246 560560

You will not be charged by us for handling your complaint and you will be advised if the complaints procedure will have any effect on any ongoing case that you may have with us.

We have eight weeks to consider your complaint. If we have not resolved it within this time you may complain to the Legal Ombudsman.

If you are still not satisfied, you can ask the Legal Ombudsman to consider the complaint. Your complaint should normally meet ALL three of the criteria below for the Legal Ombudsman to accept it:

- The problem or when you found out about it, happened after 5 October 2010; and
- You are referring your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman within one year from the date of the problem happening, or one year from when you realised there was a problem; and
- You are referring your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman within six months of our final response.

Information about The Legal Ombudsman can be accessed on their website www.legalombudsman.org.uk.

In writing: The Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6167, Slough, SL1 0EH

Telephone: 0300 555 0333

E-mail: enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk

What to do if you are unhappy with our behaviour

The Solicitors Regulation Authority can help if you are concerned about our behaviour. This could be for things like dishonesty, taking or losing your money or treating you unfairly because of your age, a disability or other characteristic.

Visit their website to see how you can raise your concerns with the Solicitors Regulation Authority.
